A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

A Book Study Program

In A Biblical Walk Through the Mass by Edward Sri, come to discover how the Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear Him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive Him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist.

The words, the gestures, and the rituals of the Mass are rich in meaning. Everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language. A Biblical Walk Through the Mass explores the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what it all means and why it all matters. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist. Join us the four Mondays in Lent (March 7, 14, 21, and 28) at 6:15p.m. at St. Francis School located at 1755 Stanley St., New Britain.

Father John's Farewell Party

We will gladly accept baked goods for the dessert table.

Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday after Quinquagesima Sunday, is the first day of the Lenten fast. The name dies cinerum (day of ashes), which it bears in the Roman Missal, is found in the earliest existing copies of the Gregorian Sacramentary and probably dates from at least the eighth century.

On this day all the faithful according to ancient custom are exhorted to approach the altar before the beginning of Mass, and there the priest, dipping his thumb into ashes previously blessed, marks upon the forehead—or in the case of clerics upon the place of the tonsure—of each the sign of the cross, saying the words: “Remember man that thou art dust and unto dust thou shalt return.” The ashes used in this ceremony are made by burning the remains of the palms blessed on the Palm Sunday of the previous year.

In the blessing of the ashes four prayers are used, all of them ancient, and the ashes are sprinkled with holy water and fumigated with incense. The celebrant himself, be he bishop or cardinal, receives, either standing or seated, the ashes from some other priest, usually the highest in dignity of those present. In earlier ages a penitential procession often followed the rite of the distribution of the ashes, but this is not now prescribed.

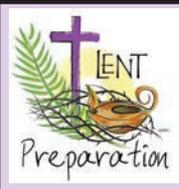

There can be no doubt that the custom of distributing the ashes to all the faithful arose from a devotional imitation of the practice observed in the case of public penitents. But this devotional usage, the reception of a sacramental which is full of the symbolism of penance (cf. the cor contritum quasi cans of the “Dies Inn”) is of earlier date than was formerly supposed. It is mentioned as of general observance for both clerics and faithful in the Synod of Beneventum, 1091 (Mansi, XX, 739), but nearly a hundred years earlier than this, the Anglo-Saxon homilist Aelfric assumes that it applies to all classes of men. “We read,” he says, “in the books both in the Old Law and in the New that the men who repented of their sins bestrewed themselves with ashes and clothed their bodies with sackcloth. Now let us do this little at the beginning of our Lent that we strew ashes upon our heads to signify that we ought to repent of our sins during the Lenten fast.” And then he enforces this recommendation by the terrible example of a man who refused to go to church for the ashes on Ash Wednesday and who a few days after was accidentally killed in a boar hunt (Aelfric, “Lives of Saints”, ed. Skeat, I, 262-266). It is possible that the notion of penance which was suggested by the rite of Ash Wednesday was reinforced by the figurative exclusion from the sacred mysteries symbolized by the hanging of the Lenten veil before the sanctuary.

Ash Wednesday and Lenten Abstinence

Wednesday, March 2, the holy season of Lent begins.
 Days of Fast and Abstinence:
 Ash Wednesday and Good Friday
 All the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.

Day of Fast means one large meal, no eating between meals for those between 18-59 years of age. Abstinence means that no meat may be eaten. All those 14 years of age and older are required to abstain. Health concerns take precedence over these requirements.

Are you looking to make your Lenten journey special this year? Ash Wednesday is this week, but there's still time! Come and join us this Monday evening (February 28) from 7:00 – 8:30pm in the Church Hall at St. Francis as we explore 6 practical ways in which we can make the Lenten experience of real transformation our own. Our presenter will be Sr. Mariette Moan, ASCJ – Vicar for Religious for the Archdiocese of Hartford – who will lead us to discover the transformative themes of the Lenten Gospels: Repent & Believe, Listen to Him, Change Your Heart, Be Reconciled to God and Others, Journey Together to New Life and Find Your Passion! Admission is a donation of 5 food items for the needy.

STATIONS of the CROSS

Fridays during Lent
12:10pm at St. Peter
7:30pm at St. Francis

Prayer Line

In need of Prayers? Please call our “Spirit of Love” Prayer Line.

How Is the Eucharist Consecrated?

The Eucharist is consecrated by the power of the Holy Spirit and the presiding priest's saying the essential words of consecration (CCC 1353).

The approved and minimally necessary words [for the Roman/Latin Rite] that must be said for a valid consecration are "This is my body" in offering the bread and "This is my blood" or "This is the chalice of my blood" in offering the wine. If a priest omits any of these essential words, the consecration is invalid.

From Office for the Liturgical Celebrations of the Supreme Pontiff: [As] the theologian Joseph Ratzinger put it so well: "In order that an event that occurred in the past is made present, the words must therefore be pronounced: This is my body—this is my blood. But in these words it is assumed that the I of Jesus Christ speaks. Only he can say these things; they are his words. No man can pretend to declare the I of Jesus Christ as his own. No one can say here are many communities can transmit, rather it can only be founded on the 'sacramental' authorization given to the whole Church by Jesus Christ himself. . . . And this is exactly the 'priestly ordination' and the 'priesthood'" (20).

Archbishop's Annual Appeal

This weekend marks the start of the 2022 Archbishop's Annual Appeal in our parish. If you haven't already, you will soon receive a letter from Archbishop Blair seeking your support. As Catholics in the Archdiocese of Hartford we have a profound impact on our local communities not only in the spiritual realm, but intimately connected to it, the realm of social services and many charities and outreach services performed by, or with help from, our Church.

To view some of the wonderful things accomplished through your generosity, the Archbishop's Annual Appeal is launching a new web-series called, The Annual Appeal at Work. The premiere episode will be airing on Thursday, March 3rd on all Archdiocesan Social Media sites as well as the Archbishop's Annual Appeal webpage. New episodes will air the first week of each month, for the rest of 2022. Each episode will highlight some of the wonderful ministries supported by the 2022 Archbishop's Annual Appeal, Stronger Together. ## The Martha and Kenneth Revoir Scholarship Application

The Martha and Kenneth Revoir Scholarship was established in 2016 by Kenneth Revoir in memory and in honor of his mother, Martha Revoir, a parishioner of St. Maurice Church, now known as St. Katharine Drexel Parish. In creating the scholarship trust, it was Mr. Revoir's intention that students be able to pursue the education for which they are qualified in order to become successful, productive citizens. Scholarships with a minimum of $2,500 may be awarded to full time students who are enrolled at an accredited college, university or community college or are pursuing a course of study which will prepare them for a trade or profession at an accredited educational facility which awards degrees or certification and has a full time faculty. Please see the application for complete details.

Scholarship applications may be obtained at the parish office or online at www.stkdrexelct.org. It is extremely important that all requirements and deadlines contained in the application process are met in a timely manner. Failure to enclose the required materials and to meet the deadlines will cause the application to be deemed incomplete and it will not be forwarded to the Trustees for consideration. Please note the deadline has been extended to April 15, 2022.
