Look out for our new bulletin!

As mentioned at Masses the past few weeks, our bulletin format will be changing and this bulletin will be our last publishing in this format. Moving forward, we will be self-producing the bulletin in order to seek to present all information in the most updated, appealing and relevant way possible. The newly formatted bulletin will be published every other week, and will be designed by our very own students who are studying graphic design. We are very grateful to John Patrick Publishers who have provided our bulletin for the last many years. We are also grateful to the many advertisers who have helped to keep it published. Those interested in advertising in the newly formatted bulletin should contact the parish office.

New Office Hours

As we increase our presence on campus, our office hours will now be held on Sunday from 9:00am-1:00pm in the Church and Monday and Wednesday from 9:00am to 2:00pm in the Rectory. Please feel free to leave a message at all other times and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

Masses of Reparation for Clergy Sexual Abuse

Archbishop Leonard P. Blair has announced three Masses of Reparation to be offered in churches throughout the Archdiocese for the sins of clergy sexual abuse. Prayer and acts of reparation to God for these crimes and sins within our Church are critically important in conjunction with our current safe environment efforts. Everyone is invited to participate in these Masses as these sins have wounded us all.
