Welcome Father Greg Serwa,
Pallottine Missionary

Father Casey and Father Serwa

This weekend, mission priest Father Greg Serwa will speak on behalf of the Pallottine Mission, an international religious community with over 2,300 members serving on five continents. Their mission addresses the needs of the poor and underprivileged with basic necessities of life through their orphanages, educational institutions, and dispensaries, as well as proclaiming the Gospel through faith formation and mission parishes. Social work programs directly assist the poor and needy. They empower women and take care of children affected by AIDS through education and providing medications. The Second Collection this weekend will help them continue their valuable mission. To learn more, visit pallottines.org.
