Seminarian Fun Day

On Thursday, June 27, Seminarians from the Archdiocese of Hartford gathered together with our brother Seminarians from the Diocese of Bridgeport for our annual Seminarian Fun Day in Higganum, CT. It was a day filled with fraternity and thrilling activities such as potato and paintball shooting. We split into two Diocese teams to battle against each other in different activities. Of course, Team Archdiocese of Hartford took the trophy home! A big thanks to Father Casey for putting this day together and to the Todzia's for their leadership and hospitality!
