ST FRANCIS CATHOLIC

Jennifer Hoyle and James O'Hara were married on Saturday, August 21st at St. Francis. Congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple!

Newman Club president, Julia Kudewicz (front right) welcomed CCSU students back to campus as classes began August 26th!

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!

The LifeTeen program returns Sunday, September 12th after the 10:00 am Mass. This weekly faith enriching program is open to all high school students from Freshman through Senior year. PLEASE NOTE: Even returning students must re-register for this next year's program. Youth Minister, Brittany Larese, will be available after 10:00 am Mass in the next few weeks leading up to the September 12th launch with registration forms which must be completed by a parent/guardian. For more info, email Brittany at: brittany@stfranciscatholic.org.

ADORO TE

Adoro Te provides extracurricular activities for families who choose to educate at least one of their children at home. The group has been offering activities and support for homeschooling families for over 15 years. Many of these activities take place at the St. Francis campus. For more info, visit www.AdoroTe.org.
